Health This Summer Is Good In U.S.

Washington, July 27.-Automobiles may kill 25,000 Americans anually, but they are prolonging the lives of the survivors by getting them out in the air and contributing to better health, Surgeon General Hugh S. Cumming declared to Public health generally throughout the country is better this summer than a year ago, according to Cumming. He attributes the condition to more sensible living, indulgence ir. exercise, more fresh air, sur light and wholesome food. The public is dressing more sensibly than a decade ago. Women especially have a healthadvantage over their mothers and grandmothers, getting away from unsanitary long hair and iron-clad stays. Even male attire came in for a word of commendation. Light suits, sane shoes and soft hats of straw now popular with men, are conducive to more comfort-

Commission Given Report Today Which May Mean Ultimate Approval

TRUNK LINES HAD OPPOSED PLANS

Extension Will Run Thru This County to Steel Plants In Valley

The examiner for the interstate commerce commission at Washington today reported favorably on the request for permission for the contruction of extensions of the Pittsburgh, Lisbon and Western R. R. from Smith's Ferry, Pa. to the Youngstown steel district and the acquisition of the P. L. & W. by the Montour R. R. of Pennsylvania.

Hearings on the dual request were held several weeks ago, and oppo-sition developed when the trunk line roads opposed the extension and purchase.

Briefs then were submitted by both sides to the examiner in charge, and his decision today, it is believed, will have much to do with the eventual decision of the commission as a whole. In many cases the examiners' reports have been tantamount to approval by the commission.

A favorable report also was made by Chief Engineer Burnside, of the commission and included with the examiner's report.

Would Be Direct Route The extension will run through the eastern part of Columbiana county, near East Palestine, a direct ceal route from Smiths Ferry, on the Ohio river, to Struthers and Youngstown and other steel centers

The Pittsburgh Coal company, owners of the Montour railroad is back of the negotiations, hoping that the petition will be granted and the line extended so that there will be a direct route and cheapen the freight rates on coal from their fields to the steel district An entirely new line will be created, it is said, so that the coal may go up the Ohio river in Pittsburgh company owned barges, to the rail-road shipping station at Smiths Ferry, where it will be shipped di-rect to Struthers and Youngstown.

The Pennsylvania railroad, Erie, New York Central and all other trunk lines opposed the extension, stating that their business interests will be injured.

ROBINSON DIES

Lisbon Farmer Succumbs To Fall Off Haywagon; Funeral Sunday

Thomas Robinson, 71, of near Lisben, died at City hospital'at 7 a. m. today from a broken neck sustained when he lost his balance and fell from a hay wagon at his home Wednesday afternoon.

His injury was at first not believed to be serious, it is reported, and he was not taken to the hospital until 11 a. m. Thursday where examination revealed that his neck had been broken in the fall. Robinson received injuries when he fell as he was pitching hay into the mow of his barn.

The body was taken to Lisbon this morning and the funeral will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the home. Rev. Fraser, of Beaver church, will be in charge. Interment in the Lisbon cemetery.

Robinson was born in Wayne township Nov. 14, 1857. He never married and lived with his brother, William. A brother, Robert, lives in East Liverpool.

BOY'S CONDITION STILL SERIOUS

The condition of Robert, fiveyear-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seward, 97 North Howard st, who was seriously injured when he tripped and fell in front of the automobile owned and driven by W. J. Scullion, 22 West Pershing ave, at 8:35 p. m. Wednesday, is reported to be the same today. The boy, while playing in front of his home with several young friends, is said to have run in front of the machine, when he trip-ped and fell. Both rear and front wheels passed over his body, breaking several ribs and shoulder bones, is reported.

Scullion, who was held blameless in the accident by the parents of child, will probably be exonerated. No report was made to police.

MYSTERIOUS PHENOMENON

Recently there have been two tragedies of the air, due to lightning. They serve to attract attention to the fact that although it is considerably more than a century since Benjamin Franklin establishcd the essentially electrical identity of lightning, the phenomenon still is, to a very large degree, shrouded in mystery

If an all-metalic ship flies into a region of high electrical stress and tension, between two charged clouds or between one charged cloud and the uncharged earth below, does it serve to provoke a lightning flash which otherwise does not occur?

Apples Up, Tobacco Down, In 200 Years

Foes of tobacco might find grain of comfort in the altered relationship between the demand for tobacco and the demand for apples which has arisen in the past years. A bushel of apples will buy 13 times as much tobacco now as it would have bought in 1688, according to figures which have been worked out by Charles W. Hauck of the rural economics department of the Ohio State university.

Hauck recently came across some data on apple production in Virginia in the 17th century. One owner of an apple orchard of 2500 trees declared that in a few years he expected an income of 15,000 pounds iness meeting of of tobacco from it. Tobacco was, of course, the currency of that day and all values were measured in it.

Hauck assumed that the produc-Mrs. I. F. Mellinger left tion of the 2500 trees would have been 22,500 bushels of apples. "Under modern conditions in Ohio," hullen of Philin the home of

Will Face Stern Inquiry Before Mussolini When He Comes Home

Rome, July 27.-When Gen. Umberto Nobile and his fellow survivors of the Italia disaster arrive here from the Arctic early next week, probably on Tuesday, they will slip into Rome quietly.

It will be a home coming far from their dreams when they set out three months ago.
Instead of the plaudits and medals they had expected they will arrive to face a stern inquiry at the hands of Premier Mussolini to determine if negligence was responsible for the disaster on May 25 when the dirigible was wrecked in storm between the North pole and Spitzbergen.

The Nobile party is enroute here today from Narvik, Norway, where they landed from the supply ship Citta di Milano to travel the balance of the way by train.
Two members of the expedition are dead and six others are missing.

(Continued From Page One) and in view of the great political zations exerted in securing the adop zations exerted in securing the adoption of this Eighteenth amendment and of the legislation in support thereof, and of your intense, interest in their maintenance as part of our constitution and laws, may I not ask the aid of your powerful organizations in bringing before the people of the Eighteenth Congressional district a full, fair, free reasoned and as far as may be intelligent consideration of this question?

"To this end may I not also further ask that your respective organizations at once arrange and announce public meetings of your organizations at all their, usual places of meeting within this district, at which meetings I may be accorded the privilege of attending and stating the reasons which lead me to the opinions above stated.

Does Not Question Motives

"I assume that your organizations are impelled by high patriotic motives and that your members have onen minds and are willing to listen tion of this Eighteenth amendment tives and that your members have open minds and are willing to listen to "the other side." I shall not and do not question that your motives are good; but I shall argue that your judgment is not sound. I shall invoke the authority of the second paragraph of the Declaration of Independence, the enacting clause of the Constitution of the United States. the Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the state of Ohio of 1802 and 1851, to support the proposition that the Eighteenth amendment is not in accord with the spirit of our insti-tutions as set up by the above gov-ernmental instruments and ought, therefore, to be repealed. "I shall appeal to the experience of the past eight years to support the contention that your judgment s no sound. The Volstead act is daily violated by millions of people; it is not enforced because it has not behind it that great preponderance of public opinion necessary to enorcement and so ought to be repealed or at least modified so as to command that preponderance of public opinion in its favor necessary to the enforcement of all laws. ## This is an Electric Kitchen

HERE'S an electric appliance for nearly every operation in this up-to-date kitchen. And just such helpers and labor savers as these have made the word "housewife" go out of style - she's a home maker now! The modern woman does not spend long hours over the drudgery of house work. She lets electricity do the hard jobs while she devotes her time to keeping herself young and interesting, a lovable companion for her children and her husband.

How many of these "electrical servants" have you in your kitchen? Begin now, buying one at a time — and paying monthly with your electric bills.

RED RIVIERA IS DESERTED PLACE

Big Earthquake In 1927 Scared Vacationists Who Won't Return

Yalta, Crimea, July 27.-The Red Riviera, the beautiful Crimean shore of the Black sea, is deserted. Terrorized by last summer's earthquakes which rocked the breakfast tables of vacationists every morning for weeks and sent thousands fleeing in panic, tourists are seeking safer resorts.

Rooms in pensions and private homes at the tempting rent of four and five dollars a month are begging for occupants. Restaurant proprietors are being forced out of business, and the entire population for their income on summer visitors are facing a winter of starvation.

Workers Only Visitors Practically the only visitors to the Crimea this summer are workers sent by the government or trade unions to sanitoriums and rest homes, and many have flatly re-fused to go, preferring to spend the hot months in cities rather than run the risk of being hurled violently out of bed by an earthquake or having the hospital collapse beneath.

Few of the 15,000 houses wrecked by the 300 shocks last August and September, have been repaired. The report that the Crimea is slowly slipping into the sea has so rooted itself in popular belief that the statements of scientists pointing out that this is ridiculous and the shocks are not likely to be repeated this year, have failed to have any effect. All other resorts are crowded, but the Crimea is empty.

Fashionable Resort Before the revolution the shore near Yalta was Russia's most fash-ionable resort. It has figured as the scene of stories by Chekov. Tolstoy, Gorky and other famou It's glorious scenery and wonderful climate are famous throughout the world. Under the Soviet regime, it has been trans formed into a playground for the
